All Female Art Show Celebrates 8th Year with a STREET FAIR

Artistas Femeninas: "Teaching Love"

El Paso, Texas, November 10, 2015 — The All Female Art Show takes place this Saturday, Nov., 14, from 5pm to 1 am, IN THE STREETS of El Paso, TX. While the show is in its 8th Year, the Street Fair is a FIRST! Themed "Teaching Love" with live entertainment, artists, great food and drinks, plus goodies for the kids, the event celebrates female artists and LOVE -- because we ALL need more love in our lives and world! AND, in support of our community, a portion of the proceeds from all sales will be donated to La Posada Home, an invaluable service provider resource for El Paso.

The All Female Art Show: Artistas Femeninas, is a free public event for all ages, aimed at supporting female artists while promoting love in our community -- through a number of live performances and art of ALL kinds. The event is presented by All Female Art Show in partnership with 501 Bar & Bistro, who provides space and tremendous support, in addition to the City of El Paso providing closure for a portion of Texas Avenue, to accommodate the festivities.

Visit the intersection of Texas & Campbell in downtown El Paso to enjoy the fun at this ONE DAY event, on Sat. Nov, 14, from 5pm to 1am. Learn more at <https://www.facebook.com/artistas.femeninas>.
